The relationship between winemaker, sommelier and oenologist is essential to create a great wine.

That is why we work alongside expert sommeliers who help us produce the very best wine maturing, storage and serving products for your enjoyment.

that we respect by manufacturing our products in France.

The production of wine cabinets and cellar conditioners requires technical expertise and human skills.

The employees in our French plants, located in Fourmies, in the Nord département, and in Chavanoz, in the Isère département, are proud to work for a company that has earned the "Origine France Garantie" label for its wine cabinets and cellar conditioners. The label promotes "made in France" products and defends France's industry and knowhow. It is a guarantee of quality and reliability for consumers in France and abroad.

1976, creator of the wine cabinet 300,000 customers around the world 30,000,000 bottles stored 40 years of experience 1 single brand... EuroCave

Our integrated research department works tirelessly with the aim of dreaming up and designing cuttingedge designer products.

Our core commitment is to preserve the very nature of wine.

Protecting wine from light, Offering a constant temperature for maturing wine,

Ensuring the ongoing circulation of fresh air,

Preserving wine thanks to stable humidity levels,

Eliminating vibration and providing wine with the serenity it needs to mature.

We always endeavour to take the environment into account, with energy-saving wine cabinets, lowenergy components, wood from approved plantations, and fluids respecting the ozone layer.

Meeting the expectations of the most demanding wine lovers and professionals - being present everywhere to interface between winemakers, discerning customers and restaurant owners - and guaranteeing the quality of our products: these are the promises we keep on a daily basis all over the world, thanks to our 70 distributors.

When one of our cabinets travels to the other side of the world, in order to preserve outstanding vintages, the terms of performance and durability must be perfect. The relationship between a EuroCave cabinet and its owner will last some 25 to 30 years... not dissimilar to the lasting passion that one may share with a fine wine.
